GOLDEN WEDDING OF MR. AND MRS. MCGOVERN WAS FITTINGLY OBSERVED AT HALFMOON BAY

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. McGovern was duly celebrated at their home in Halfmoon Bay on Thursday.

The event was practically a reunion of the people of Halfmoon Bay. Old timers came, former residents of the coast side came from far and near to attend the big affair. Some who had left the little town many years ago and were forgotten by the present generation came to help celebrate. Mr. and Mrs. McGovern are well-known throughout the county and are held in high esteem by everyone.

As a token of appreciation the people of Halfmoon Bay gave the jubilirans a purse of gold, not that they need it ,for they are well-supplied with this world's goods, but more as a small token of remembrance for the many acts of kindness to their neighbors during their long residence on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. McGovern were gracious in receiving their many guests and friends. The bride's cake was cut by the blushing bride of 50 years ago while the wedding cake, appropriately dated, was cut by Mr. McGovern who has reached the eighty-first mile post of his career. Over 200 hundred guests enjoyed the sumptuous breakfast.

Three persons present had passed their ninetieth year and none entered into the spirit of the occasion more than they. Besides the fifteen grandchildren attending, the following sons and daughters of the venerable couple were present:

Frank McGovern of Halfmoon Bay, Mrs. Henry McGraw of South San Francisco, Mrs. Thomas F. Quinlan of Halfmoon Bay, Mrs. Clyde C. Conrad of South San Francisco, Dr. J. C. McGovern of South San Francisco and Deputy Sheriff T. C. McGovern of Redwood City.

The occasion will long be remembered by the people of Halfmoon Bay

Mr. and Mrs. McGovern were the recipients of numerous presents. Beautiful gold painted cards and flowers came in abundance to grace the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. McGovern moved to Halfmoon Bay from their ranch some years ago and since then have taken life easy.

Patrick Francis McGovern and Miss Mary Dolan were married in San Francisco on January 1, 1870; but Mr. McGovern had been a resident of what is now San Mateo county for about ten years previous to his marriage. In the early sixties he conducted what was known as the Seventeen-Mile-Dairy near the present site of the Spring Valley pumping station at Aqua. In those days there were few settlers here and wild game was plentiful. One night, while Mr. McGovern was conducting the dairy, a grizzly bear came down from the hills and killed one of his cows, so the next night he hung up a large piece of fresh meat and, armed with rifles, he and his men climbed into a nearby tree and waited for Mr. Bruin to return. They had not waited long before five grizzlies emerged from a clump of willows and lumbered over to where the meat was hanging. Waiting until the opportune moment, McGovern and his men opened fire on the bears and killed all five. He relates many other similar experiences, of encounters with big game in the early days.

After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. McGovern lived first near Pescadero and then moved to the Halfmoon Bay region. Their ranch is in what is known as the Higgins creek district near Purissima and is still conducted by their son, Frank M.rand Mrs. McGovern also have a home in Halfmoon Bay, where they now make their home.

NANETTE SANDERSON FILES WILL CONTEST

Nanette Sanderson of Burlingame has filed a contest in the superior court to the will of her brother, A. A. Neuman, who died on December 2, 1919.

Recently the wife of the deceased, Clara C. Neuman, filed the last will and testament of her husband. By the terms of the will all of the estate, the value of which is unknown except that it exceeds $10,000, was left to Mrs. Neuman. The other heirs. Lillian Dobble, Nanette Sanderson, sisters, and James V. Neuman, Arthur E. Neuman and Grover Neuman, brothers, were not mentioned in the will which was executed in San Francisco on September 16, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Neuman were married in April of the same year. The principal grounds on which the contest is brought are undue influence on the part of Mrs. Neuman and that the deceased was of unsound mind at the time of the making of the will and was not competent to execute a will. He was suffering from a malady at the time which affected his mentality and therefore was not capable of conducting any business. Mrs. Sanderson's complaint is very lengthy and marked some startling charges against Mrs. Neuman. The will was to have been admitted to probate last Monday but owing to the contest the matter was postponed.

NEW REGISTRATION BLANKS NOW BEING SENT OUT

County Clerk Elizabeth M. Nash is busy distributing registration affidavits throughout the county for the new registration. Everyone must reregister this year even though they registered in the fall of 1919.

Mrs. Nash anticipates a great increase over the registration of the last two years and is prepared for it.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. H. Dykes are rejoicing over the arrival of their first grandchild, an eight pound boy, born Sunday morning to Dr. and Mrs. Taylor Dykes of Richmond. The proud parents were former residents, but have made their home in Richmond for two years, where Dr. Taylor Dykes is practicing dentistry. "Grandpa" Dykes is the happiest man in Redwood.

Kenneth Rice departed for his home at El Paso, Texas, last Sunday evening after spending the holidays with his parents here.

That San Mateo County is a peaceloving place is demonstrated by the fact that on New Year's Day there was only one prisoner at the county jail. He was given a splendid meal by the genial sheriff but he had to partake of it by his lonely. .

The Eagle Drum Corps will give a dance in Foresters hall this evening. Dancing will continue until 3 o'clock. Lamb's superb orchestra will furnish the music. The occasion is to be known as Adams Yucatan Chewing Gum Night. Small packages of gum are to be distributed among the dancers. Valuable prizes are also to be given out. Dancers should not miss this event. It will be a merry evening.

The old Farnsworth place in Redwood Highlands erected some years ago by Carl Beeger was sold this week to Mr. Schmidt of San Francisco, who will occupy the home at once.

D. M. Flynn, the local agent for the Ford automobile, this week sold a new model self-starter run-a-bout car to the City Market. It is the very latest Ford model. A one-ton truck was also sold to Mr. Friedman of Woodside.

Mrs. J. Kearse this week received New Years card from her old friend, Mrs. Della Becker from her far off home in Newcastle, Australia. Mrs. Becker's daughter, Mrs. Holland, formerly Calare Murray. Both women were born and raised in Redwood City and are well-known here.

For a sociable game of pool and billiards visit the United Cigar store on Main street where a complete supply of "smokes," tobacco and pipes are to be had.

The Redwood City Fireman's ball on January 31, is going to be a record-breaker for attendance. Eric Thompson is chairman of the committee of arrangements and this means that every detail will be attended to and that the dance will be an unqualified success.

PRATT-LOWE CANNERY IS RECEIVING MATERIAL FOR THEIR NEW PLANT

A carload of lumber arrived at the Pratt-Lowe Canning Company's plant on Tuesday and further consignments are expected shortly.

Building will begin at once in order that the concern may be in a position to handle the spring products. Asparagus will be ready for canning in a short time. The company expects to expend something like $100,000 in building. Only a short time ago a spur track for the plant was constructed and a good supply of water has been secured from an artesian well recently drifted by the concern.

The cannery means much to Redwood City. During the busy season over 500 people will be employed there. It was rumored yesterday that the company contemplates extending its holdings in the locality of the new plant.

A San Jose contractor has the contract for erecting the cannery and will begin work on Monday next.

Mr.and Mrs. Misner, who have resided in Redwood City for a long time have gone to Los Angeles to permently reside.

COMMITTEES FROM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND TOWN TRUSTEES WORKING HARD FOR CITY WHARF

The Board of Town Trustees met in conference Monday evening with the members of the Harbor Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, there were also present at the meeting a number of our leading businessmen. The meeting had been arranged for the purpose of examining the proposition made by the S. H. Frank Tanning Company, whereby they offered to the people of Redwood City what is known as the Peninsula Dock and Warehouse Company's plant located at the foot of Main street in return for which they asked the city to construct a spur track which would connect with the rails of the Southern Pacific, and end at the junction of Holder and Main streets. S. H. Frank company to have the right to make connections.

If there was any opposition to the proposition it was not present at this meeting, all present spoke in favor of acceptance, in the end a few minor changes dealing with the form of escrow agreement were suggested and the committee arranged for a meeting with the S. H. Frank company for the following day at which time a complete agreement will be arrived at.

It is not often that two parties are able to enter into an agreement in the way of exchange whereby both are destined to profit as in this case. The S. H. Frank company from whom the proposition came in the first place are to be complimented for farsightedness and good business judgment, it is a business proposition with them, their interest lies in spur track facilities, which they, like all large manufacturing concerns, need and under this arrangement they will get. The people of Redwood City on the other hand will get through this deal what they otherwise, perhaps, would never obtain, there is deep water at the foot of Main street and that is nearly the heart of the city. A deal conveying the dock and warehouse to the Town of Redwood City will be placed in escrow and delivered for filing when the spur track has been built. The spur track will be built as soon as Congress votes money for dredging.

Congress sometime ago made a condition that there must be warehoues and spur track facilities where new or "closed" projects are to receive aid. Redwood City will have both, Congress being willing and it is safe to say that Congressman Hersman will be as anxious to get our appropriation as we of Redwood are anxious to get them.

Those most familiar with the situation at Washington are the most optomistic and see in the present arrangement no reasonable way for Congress to refuse to make the appropriation but see the dawn of a great day for Redwood City—at last.

WALLACE LOREN COBURN HAS THREE GUARDIANS AND A WILL CONTEST PENDING IN COURT

On Tuesday Judge Buck appointed J. C. Coburn special guardian of Wallace Loren Coburn, the incompetent son of the late Loren Coburn, and immediately after appointment Lee T. Ross to act as attorney for the incompetent.

Wallace Coburn now has three guardians. C. H. Widemann is the guardian named in Loren Coburn's will, W. A. Brooke is the general guardian and J. C. Coburn is the guardian ad litem and also special guardian appointed to bring the will contest.

On the heels of the appointments Ross and Ross filed the contest to the Loren Coburn will.

The complaint begins with the allegation that Sarah Satira Coburn and C. H. Widemann influenced Loren Coburn in the making of his will and that he was neither competent nor capable to manage his affairs.

It goes on to say that Loren Coburn was adjudged incompetent by the superior court of San Mateo county in March, 1908, and that the appellate court later reversed the decision on the grounds of improper admission of testimony; that in 1910 he was again declared incompetent, and that the supreme court of California later upheld the decision. It says that Sarah Satira Upton married Loren Coburn while the first proceedings for incompetency were in progress, and that upon the advice of C. H. Widemann, Mrs. Coburn refused permission to anyone to see Loren Coburn, knowing that he was in the habit of signing his name to any paper anyone requested him to sign, and that he frequently signed "his name to pieces of blank paper over which could be written instruments of character."

In furtherance of the claims made, it recites the evidence admitted at the incompetency proceedings, showing that Loren Coburn signed away without compensation over ten thousand acres of his ranches at Pescadero; that he deeded to one D. H. Richards, the city hall and hall of records of San Francisco; that he leased to Emanuel Haskins the Southern Pacific depot at Seventh and Broadway, Oakland; that he leased the Jefferson hotel block in San Francisco to Manuel Louis, and that he leased to other individuals the public school property and the Catholic church property in Pescadero.

The complaint further alleges that at the time of the signing of the will Loren Coburn was 88 years old, and in ill health, and that the date of the will was only one month after he had been restored to competency in 1914. It cialms that Widemann was in perfect health, and in the confidence of Loren Coburn, and that Widemann and Sarah Satira Coburn prevailed upon Loren Coburn to sign the will, making him believe that it was his duty to sign it.

THIRTY-TWO APPLICATIONS FOR NATURALIZATION

There were 32 applications for naturalization in the superior court on Tuesday last. Of this number only fifteen passed. The others will be up for hearing next March. F. S. Becker, the U. S. Examiner, was hard in questioning the aliens and many failed on that account. They became excited and failed to answer the questions propounded to them by the attorney. Those who became citizens were:

Hugh Gardner, Henry H. Zwick, Frederick W. Hartman, John Diesburg, Edwin Allsebrook, James E. Johansson, John McClure, George W. Smith, Percy Ellings, J. R. Ragmond, E. Rossetti, G. Guido, Andrew McNeill McKeon, Louis Gourseau, and Alcide Mutti.

The year 1919 has passed and gone and the new year, 1920 is here The former will go down as the most prosperous year in the history of the state. Let us hope that the new year will be even more prosperous. All things indicate that it will far out-strip the year that has just come to a close. Never before has the peninsula such a bright prospect. Home seekers are rushing here from all parts to buy homes and locate in this favored spot. The year 1920 should mark the banner seasón for Redwood City. The big cannery is about to begin operations and this means the employment of many men and women and large sums of money are to be expended here. Other large enterprises are to start operations during the year.

The municipal dock is soon to be a realization: Plans are about completed for taking over the property so generously offered by the Frank Tanning Company at the water front.

The members of the Chamber of Commerce are to be congratulated for the good work in bringing about the possibilities of the dock. To their untiring labors much of the credit of the succes of the enterprise is due. Certainly everything looks encouraging for a prosperous and happy year for this section.

KEYNOTE OF CAMPAIGN WILL BE "AMERICANISM"

The keynote of the next Republican national platform will be found in the word "Americanism."

"Americanism" in the true sense means, to Americans, America always first; America, not above all, but before all, in the minds and hearts of those who profess allegiance to America.

Americanism" means first thought of the rights, interests and ideals of America. It does not mean enmity te other nations. It means recognition of the indisputable truth that as other nations and peoples look first after their own, so the American people should think first of the preservation of the heritage that has come down to them through the labors and sacrifices of the founders of this republic and the generations tha have toiled and sacrificed that this nation might be the strongest and happiest of earth.

"Americanism" means that America shall not, without some better reason for doing than has yet been advanced, bankrupt herself in order that some insolvent nation may be saved from financial disaster. "Americanism" means that the assets of this country shall not be traded for the liabilities of other countries to such an extent that America shall be dragged down to that level of life for the ordinary man which has for centuries prevailed in other lands.

It is not necessary that Aemrica be wrecked to save other nations from economic disaster in order that the generosity of this nation shall be demonstrated. We have just emerged from a war in which the American people poured out their money by the billions and their soldiers by the millions to save civilization from disaster. The theory that such sacrifice only involves this nation in the obligation to take on the debt and disaster of all the rest of the owrld seems to be entertained only by a few theorists and doctrinaries, ambitious for world fame, with their deluded dupes, and with interests not so well stocked with ideals, but heavily loaded with foreign securities and the ambition to take on more to their own profit, even if all this be done by the sacrifice of the rights and interests of their own country and countrymen.

"Americanism" means the early restoration of what Henry Clay so well protection to American manufacturers, American agriculture and American labor. It means first chance in the American market for producers who live here, pay taxes here, build up this country through labor and investment ,and upon whom rests the obligation to protect this country in time of war as well as support it in time of peace. It means the abandonment of a fiscal policy which robs the American treasury and throws heavier burdens on the American taxpayer in order that alien rather than domestic industrial interests may be fostered.

"Americanism" means the protection of the lives and the property of American citizens abroad as well as at home. It means that to be an American citizen will again be as much of a protection to those who yield allegiance to the American government, as it is to be a citizen of Great Britain or of any other great, self respecting power. It will mean an end of the policy of treating American citizens, American rights and American interests with open contempt in any country on this or the other hemisphere.

SECRET AUTHORITY

Congressman Emerson of Ohio is making inquiry to ascertain where the Secretary of the Treasury gets the authority to extend the payment of interest on the foreign bonds held in the Treasury as security for the nearly ten billions of loans advanced to the nations of Europe. This is a question that is attracting increasing attention in Congress, and arousing the indignation of Republicans. They claim that the defaulting of that interest will add $500,000,000 per year to the expenses of this government.

LEGION REPORTS ARE INSERTED IN RECORDS

Representative Royal C. Johnson of South Dakota has had printed in the Congressional Record the reports of the various committees and the resolutions adopted at the Minneapolis convention of the American Legion. The matter thereby comes within the franking privilege, and can be mailed free of postage to any part of the country, provided a Congressman will permit his name to be printed on the envelope. It is probable that the Legion will take advantage of Mr. Johnson's action in the distribution of its literature.

PORK BARREL STILL THRIVES

In spite of the cry for economy in all national expenditures, the Democrats of the House find no hesitancy in submitting requests for funds with which to embellish their home districts, and tickle the fancy of their constituents. Recently a member from South Carolina introduced in one day six bills for the purchase of sites and the erection thereon of Federal buildings in as many different towns and villages of his district.

NEW BUREAU FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

A bill to create a new bureau in the Department of Agriculture for the testing and certification of farm tractors has been introduced by Congressman Sydney Anderson of Minnesota. The measure has been referred to the Agricultural Committee of the House, of which Mr. Anderson is a member, and he intends to seek early action upon it.

AMERICANIZED MOVIE APPEAL

An appeal to the motion picture industry, issued jointly by the Senate and House Committees on Education, asks that a campaign of Aemricanism be inaugurated on the screen to offset the spread of radical propaganda. Members of the committees anticipate prompt acceptance of their suggestion.

CALLAN RPOPERTY TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Next Monday at 12 o'clock at the court house steps the real property of the estate of Mary Callan, deceased, will be sold at auction to the highest bidder.

KENDALL DIVORCE CASE TO BE HEARD NEXT MONDAY

The divorce suit of Fred E. Kendall against his wife, Carmelita Kendall will be tried in the superior court next Monday. Some sensational evidence is expected at the trial.

The action was begun by Kendall in San Francisco and transferred to this county last April. Extreme cruelty and desertion is the grounds on which the suit is based.

Mrs. Kendall is a daughter of the late N. J. Brittan. She will be represented by J. B. White while Kendall's side of the case will be conducted by John L. McNab. The Kendalls resided at the Brittan home until their separation some time ago.

TRIAL OF GEORGE PERRY UP FOR JANUARY 13, 1920

The trial of George Perry charged with the crime of rape committed at Pescadero last November will take place in the superior court on January 13. He will be represented by Edward A. Cunha, the assistant district attorney of San Francisco.

PLAINTIFF GIVEN JUDGMENT FOR $2000 DAMAGES

The damage suit of Miss Grace Iverson against Miss Natalie Hansen was tried before Judge Buck by a jury Tuesday morning. The jury returned a verdict of $2000 in favor of plaintiff. Miss Hansen is a teacher in the Redwood City grammar school.

Miss Iverson was riding with John Isola, her stepfather, of San Francisco, on the La Honda grade last June, when a machine driven by Miss Hansen attempted to pass and in doing so collided with the machine in which the couple were riding, and their machine went over a seventy-five foot embankment, breaking two of Miss Iverson's ribs, and injuring her in other ways, according to the complaint.

Shortly after she filed suit against Miss Hansen for $10,000. The verdict Monday aws a result of a year's litigation. Thomas Bradbury was the foreman of the jury which made the award.

The stepfather has also filed a suit for damages for a similar amount. The case is to be tried shortly.

SAN CARLOS NOTES

Owing to a slight heart attack and nervous break-down Mrs. A. Paulsen was forced to leave her beautiful home and go to the St. Mary's hospital, San Francisco, the latter part of last week. She is reported as improving.

Mr. W. S. Oke who is in his 77th year, and who has been a member of the Odd Fellows for half a century went to Sacramento to attend his home lodge last Friday night.

The patrons of our post office should be reminded that the postmaster of a fourth class office is still paid on a cancellation basis and the only way he can be rewarded for his work in handling and distributing the large volume of incoming mail is by every one taking the small trouble of sending all outgoing mail through the San Carlos office instead of Redwood or San Francisco offices where the postmasters are paid a stated salary.

Dr. J. G. Null of San Francisco who has been occupying his new bungalow in the Hillside section only for the week ends the past year now expects to take up his residence here permanently and will establish offices in Redwood City, confining his practice to Belmont, San Carlos and Redwood. Mrs. Null who is also a practicing physician will remain in the metropolis where their three boys are attending school.

Master Henry Willenbrink who returned to San Francisco to live with his father several months ago was here for several days visit at the Dennery home and a good time with his young school chums.

Mr. Frank H. Bartlett, who recently moved with his family from across the bay and who are domiciled at the Pawers' Apartments, was former mayor of the progressive little city of Alameda.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Marvin returned last Sunday from an extended auto trip through the southern part of the state.

Maury Cowgill left last Sunday evening on the Shasta Limited to spend his Christmas vacation on the Maury ranch near Medford, Oregon. He expects to return January 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Philo S. Johnson and Master Everet are down from Calistoga for a visit at the homes of the E. E. Jones and J. J. Johnsons for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. V. Clark went to San Francisco to eat Christmas turkey with their daughter, Mrs. Ernest West.

The two auto accidents on the state highway at the junction of Cypress avenue, one a collision between a new Ford and a truck operated by the Highway Transport company of San Francisco and the other that of a rear end collision between a brand new Maxwell and a Peninsula buss, by which five people were more or less seriously injured is sufficient to confirm the justice of the protest made to the District Attorney and the Board of Supervisors by President Cowgill of the San Carlos Community Club asking that they take some action toward enforcing the traffic laws as it effects this section of the state highway traversing San Carlos, a part of the thoroughfare which was presented to the county by the citizens of our little city.

All of the San Carlos kiddies acquitted themselves exceedingly well in the program prepared by Miss Hind at the school house last Friday evening, and everyone present were loud in their praise, saying it couldn't have been done better by professionals. The little playlet, "The Top of the World," was a very breezy and delightful sketch of Yuletide cheer and was a fine avenue through which the little actors and actresses had a chance to show the best that was in them. There was too great a company of them to list their names, but as they all did so splendidly it is not necessary. The teacher, Miss Hind and Mrs. Mary E. Quinn and others who assisted in preparing this Yuletide treat for the parents and friends of the children deserve a great deal of credit. Mrs. J. V. Clark who has been giving so much of her time, devoting many of her afternoons, to teaching the girls needle work was remembered with a present as a token of the children's appreciation. Miss Hind also received a present as a token of the children's esteem and affection.

Regardless of the cramped quarters in which the post office force were forced to handle the large number of Christmas packages there was no delay and no appreciable damage to a single parcel with the slight exception, that the President of our Community Club complains that all of the kick was squeezed out of a big batch of mince meat which was shipped from the Maury ranch in Oregon as the best Yuletide cheer they had at their disposal in the dry state on the north.

As we are writing these items Dranzy A. Jones just alighted from the Lark this (Friday) morning on his return from old Mexico where he has been inspecting mining prospects for San Francisco investors. Mr. Jones reports a big boom in the south both in Mexico and the United States.

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

Royal Ross Coryell is recuperating from an operation for acute appendicitis at one of the San Francisco hospitals. The Coryell home at Atherton is closed, and as soon as young Coryell is able to be moved the family will go to San Francisco for the remainder of the winter.

Lumber has arrived for the construction of a four-room cottage to be erected for Captain Whittaker close to the fire house by the fire commissioners. John MacBain has the contract and will rush the work.

Mrs. Al Midgley gave a children's party on Monday to about 30 little tots at her home on Mills avenue. A Christmas tree loaded with precious presents for all was distributed by Santa Claus. Games dear to every child were played until the ice cream and cake were served. All the little ones present look upon the host as their fairy Godmother.

Last week in San Francisco a little girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watkins. Mr. Watkins is the private chauffeur for E. W. Hopkins.

Thomas Carleton departs today for Santa Barbara to complete his course in manual training at the Normal school there. He has just completed a course of two years at the San Jose Normal. It will take 75 weeks to finish his studies at Santa Barbara. Young Carleton is a graduate of the high school at Redwood City.

The residents along Santa Cruz avenue are alarmed about a current rumor to the effect that Japanese have leased nearly all the land on both sides of the avenue for the cultivation of tomatoes and berries. This encroachment on the beautiful homes nearby is an alarming state of affairs. A Palo Alto real estate man, it is said, has negotiated the deals.

Harvey Bassett and his young bride were here last week calling on friends. Mr. Bassett recently married an heiress of San Jose. The couple are making their home in the Garden City. Mr. Bassett was born and raised in Menlo Park and is the son of the late A. C. Bassett for many years superintendent of the Coast Division of the Southern Pacific company.

"Palo Alto," the tall tree from which this city received its Spanish name, will have a bronze tablet fixed on its trunk to mark it as one of the historical land-marks of the state, if the efforts of Palo Alto Parlor of Native Sons of the Golden West succeed. A committee from the parlor, including Monsignor Joseph M. Gleason, chairman; L. A. Hettinger, I. P. Vandervoort, J. F. Byxbee Jr., and N. E. Malcolm, has been appointed to make this request of the landmarks committee of the grand parlor of the order. The parlor hopes to have this done before the next grand parlor convention at San Diego in April. The tree marks one of the resting places of the early Spanish padres in their journeys from San Diego to Sonoma.

Claude C. Woodworth and Miss Catherine M. Redmond were united in marriage on Wednesday by Father J. J. Sullivan at his residence. After the ceremony the young couple motored to San Francisco where the wedding breakfast was enjoyed. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth will reside in Salinas where the groom is engaged in the garage business.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY — COURTEOUS CONTINUOUS SERVICE

Electric Cleaners Safeguard Health

Carpets, rugs and draperies are germ catchers and carriers. There is only one effective means of eliminatiog them. Beating and sweeping merely stirs up dirt, to let it settle again.

THE ELECTRIC VACUUM CLEANER cleans. It digs down deep into the texture of the carpet, and pulls out and collects all the germ laden dirt, so it can be carried out of the house.

There is no back-breaking labor. You merely turn the electric switch and run your sweeper. In little or no time the sweeping and dusting part of the house cleaning job is simply, easily accomplished.

The cost of current is a mere triffle—the amount that one Mazda Lamp would use in the same amount of time. Ask your contractor-dealer for a demonstration and explanation of his term payment plan.

FESTYN DAVIES GREETED WITH ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD

Last Saturday evening was a good sized gathering of the music lovers of Redwood City to greet Festyn Davies, the famous Welsh tenor, who had offered to lead a local choir, if one could be organized.

The meeting was called to order by C. G. Lambert, acting as temporary chairman, who introduced Captain Davies. The Captain gave a very interesting talk on what could be accomplished, after which a general discussion took place, ending in the determination by those present to form a choral.

The election of officers was then held, the result being that C. G. Lambert was chosen president, Mrs. P. N. C. Cummings vice-president, Miss Gertrude Beeger secretary and Mrs. A. E. Montieth, chairman of the executive committee.

Captain Davies then offered to bring the San Mateo choral down and give a portion of the proceeds to Redwood choral to get them properly started.

In order that a number of people interested that were unable to be present last Saturday evening might have a voice in the matter, action on the offer of Captain Davies was postponed until next Saturday evening, January 3, 1920, when the choral will again meet in the Assembly hall of the high school promptly at 8 o'clock.

Choral members will please take note of this, and bring your friends along with you. Don't forget the time and place.

The Broadway Garage was sold this week by George Kreis to A. E. Ritchy who is well known in this section having lived here some years During the war he captain of an engineercorps and was discharged last month from the army. He has had considerable experience in the automobile business.

On account of increasing business and want of more room, Robert J. Lettes, the live wire real estate man, will move his office from the Sequoia Theatre building to the building on the corner of Winslow street and Broadway close to the Southern Pacific depot.

Will type specifications at home and during spare time during office hours, phone Red. 290-J, or S. Mateo 136-J.
